Important Note:

This section of the consent form primarily applies to patients whose samples are submitted for surveillance and referral testing through RESUs, ESUs, DRUs, and other referring institutions. For RITM inpatients and outpatients, consent for the use of residual samples is generally obtained through the Hospital Management System (HMS).

Paalala:

Ang bahaging ito ng form ng pahintulot ay pangunahing para sa mga pasyenteng ang mga sample ay isinusumite para sa surveillance at referral testing sa pamamagitan ng RESUs, ESUs, DRUs, at iba pang nagpapadalang institusyon.

Para sa mga RITM inpatient at outpatient, ang pahintulot para sa paggamit ng natitirang sample ay karaniwang kinukuha sa pamamagitan ng Hospital Management System (HMS).

V. RESIDUAL SPECIMEN INFORMED CONSENT / PAHINTULOT SA PAGGAMIT NG NATITIRANG ISPESIMEN

Your residual clinical specimen and its derivatives (including isolates and nucleic acid extracts) may be stored and used for National Reference Laboratory activities such as validation of testing procedures, research, in-vitro diagnostic medical device (IVDMD) evaluations, external quality assurance programs, and trainings, unless you choose to opt out.

(Ang natitirang klinikal na ispesimen at mga kaugnay nitong produkto, kabilang ang mga isolate at nucleic acid extracts, ay maaaring itago at gamitin para sa mga gawain ng National Reference Laboratory tulad ng pagpapatunay ng mga pamamaraan ng pagsusuri, pananaliksik, pagsusuri ng mga in-vitro diagnostic medical devices (IVDMD), mga external quality assurance program, at mga pagsasanay, maliban kung piliin ninyong hindi pahintulutan ang paggamit nito.)

All personal and sensitive information will be treated with strict confidentiality in accordance with Republic Act No. 10173 (Data Privacy Act of 2012) and established RITM data protection policies.

(Ang lahat ng personal at sensitibong impormasyon ay pananatiliing mahigpit na kumpidensyal alinsunod sa Republic Act No. 10173 (Data Privacy Act of 2012) at sa mga umiiral na patakaran ng RITM ukol sa proteksyon ng datos.)
